Amrita Collective established by Chankethya Chey and her colleagues in early 2019 with an aim to promote leadership and creativity through dance. The collective brings together incredible young and uplifting artists to be leader and to have their voices heard. With the commitment to provide safe space for both audiences and artists to exchange ideas for the purpose of social growth, Amrita Collective offers open dance class and performances for contemporary and creative work.

THE TROJAN WOMEN PROJECT FESTIVAL

Celebrating
5 years of The Trojan Women Project
45 years of La MaMa’s The Trojan Women
100th birthday of La MaMa’s Ellen Stewart

A festival of performances, panels and workshops with artists from The Trojan Women Project in Guatemala, Cambodia, Kosovo and La MaMa’s Great Jones Repertory Company

Featuring a newly reimagined production of ‘La MaMa’s The Trojan Women’ Directed by Andrei Serban
Composer by Elizabeth Swados
Costume Design by Gabriel Berry
Original Set Design by Jun Maeda

The Trojan Women Project Festival
Over the course of five years, The Trojan Women Project has brought La MaMa’s production of ‘The Trojan Women’ originally produced by La MaMa’s founder Ellen Stewart, to areas of recent or ongoing conflict as a tool for community-building and cultural exchange. Artists in Cambodia, Guatemala, and Kosovo learned the piece as it was historically taught through oral tradition and performed local productions in their own countries.

The Trojan Women Project Festival unites Albanian, American, Cambodian, Guatemalan, Mayan, Roma, and Serbian artists to perform a new production of ‘The Trojan Women’.

La MaMa’s historic, landmark building at 74 East 4th Street is undergoing an urgently needed complete renovation and restoration to preserve the historic façade, create building-wide ADA accessibility, and provide much needed performance, exhibition and community space for decades to come.

La MaMa, founded by Ellen Stewart in 1961, has been on east 4th Street since 1967. La MaMa embraces every person in its community and is legendary as the place where new artists of all nations, cultures, races, and identities are given opportunities. It is the place where art begins.
